Holinshed's Account of a Workmen's Song from Dover STC: 13569

p 1546

30

... Finallie, this summer, being in the yeare of our Lord one thousand five hundred eightie and three, was verie hot and contagious, & the infection of the plague that yeare more vniuersallie dispersed through England than in manie yeares before, and that towne verie much subiect therevnto, by means of throughfare and common passage, and had been extremelie visited therewith not long before, so as the towne was abandoned of most men; yea of some of the inhabitants themselues for that cause: and yet God blessed so the works, as in this extraordinarie and populous assemblie, there was in no part of the towne anie death or infection either of townsmen or workmen, which resorted thither from all the parts of England.

And one thing more in mine opinion is to be noted and commended herein, that is to saie, that in all this time, and among all these people, there was neuer anie tumult, fraie, nor falling out, to the disquieting or disturbance of the works, which by that means were the better applied, and with lesse interruption. For they neuer ceased working the whole daie, sauing that at eleuen of the clocke before noone, as also at six of the clocke in the euening, there was a flag vsuallie held vp by the sargent of the towne, in the top of a tower, except the tide or extraordinarie busines forced the officers to preuent the houre, or to make some small delaie & staie therof. And presentlie vpon the signe giuen, there was a generall shout made by all the workers: and wheresoeuer anie court was at that instant either emptie or loden, there was it left, till one of the clocke after noone or six of the clocke in the morning, when they returned to their businesse. But by the space of halfe an houre before the flag of libertie was hanged out, all the court driuers entered into a song, whereof although the dirtie was barbarous, and the note rusticall, the matter of no moment, & all but a iest: yet is it not vnworthie of some briefe note of remembrance; because the tune or rather the noise thereof was extraordinarie, and (being deliuered with the continuall voice of such a multitude) was verie strange. In this and some other respect, I will set downe their dittie, the words whereof were these:

The flag of libertie.

® Or six

O Harrie hold vp thy hat, t'is eleuen* a clocke, and a little, little, little, past: My bow is broke, I would vnyoke, my foot is sore, I can worke no more.

This song was made and set in Romneie marsh, where their best making is making of wals and dikes, and their best setting is to set a needle or a stake in a hedge: howbeit this is a more ciuill call than the brutish call at the theatre for the comming awaie of the plaiers to the stage. I think there was neuer worke attempted with more desire, nor proceeded in with more contentment, nor executed with greater trauell of workemen, or diligence of officers, nor prouided for with more carefulnesse of commissioners, not with truer accounts or duer paie, nor contriued with more circumspection of the deuisers and vndertakers of the worke, nor ended with more commendation or comfort: sauing that vpon the seuen & twentieth of Iulie, being S. Iames his daie, the verie daie when the crosse wall and the long wall met, and were ioined together, and in effect finished (for both wals were brought aboue the high water marke, and nothing remained to be done of the same but hightening, which might be doone at anie time after) sir Thomas Scot the principall pillar of that worke fell sicke vpon the wals, and was conueied thense in a wagon to his house, where he remained six weeks, more likelie to die than to liue, whose ladie and wife (being a most vertuous and noble matrone, & a liuelie paterne of womanhood and sobrietie, the daughter of sir Iohn Baker knight, and the mother of seenteene children) vsed such diligent attendance and continuall care for hir husbands recouerie of helth, as thereby she brought hir selfe into so weake state of bodie, as being great with two children, she fell sicke; and after hir vntimelie trauell, being deliuered of a sonne and a daughter, she ended hir mortall life.

This sickness of sir Thomas Scot, and that which fell out therevpon, was no small discomfiture to him and all his. And the workmen at Douer made such mone for his sicknesse, and also for his absence, that euerie street was replenished with sorrow and greefe; and the people would be comforted with nothing more, nor anie waie be better encouraged to worke lustilie, than to be told that sir Thomas Scot was well recouered, and would shortlie be amongst them againe. And in truth, they translated their barbarous musicke into a sorrowfull song, and in steed of calling to Harrie for their dinner, they called to God for the good health and returne of their best freend sir Thomas Scot, and that with a generall and continuall outcrie, euen in their old accustomed tune & time....

Deposition Concerning Thomas Napleton of Faversham

PRO: SP 14/90

f [1]

14^o ffebruary 1616

15

It is pittie that ever this king came to the Crowne of England, for he hath more regard of his dogges then he hath of his subiectes or common wealth. These wordes were spoken by Thomas Napleton of ffaversham aboute five or six yeres since at the howse of the sayd Thomas in ffavershame in the kitchin ther, in the presence of Anthony napleton ye yonger Anthony Napleton the elder deceased william Tomlyn & the wife of the said Thomas

The wordes wete spoken vpon this occasion, william Tomlyn was telling of some parte of ^a playe, wherin ther was one played the parte of an huntzman in greene apparell, which person was thought to present the kinges person, to whome another actor sayd that he had rather heare a dogg barke then a Cannon rore meaning that person that represented the king, vpon which occasion the sayd Thomas spake as above town and the Mayor that was before he hath resigned his office shall charge the other Mayor when he is chosen And this other shall be charged that he shall be true and lawful unto the King of England, and to his heirs, and lawfully shall maintain the franchises of the town and rich and poor in one right so help him God and his saints. Kissing the book. And all the XII. Jurats shall do the same. And in case that the Mayor that be chosen be not present to take the charge the Mayor that was before shall not be discharged of his office till the other be charged. And it is so understood that none of the Jurats shall be in the election, but in case that the commonaltie choose to be their Mayor one that is not sufficient to do the office the Jurats shall not accept him, but they shall compel them to choose one that be able and sufficient and if the Mayor that is chosen refuse to take his charge, all the commoners shall go and beat down his principal messuage and if any be chosen by the simple voice of the Mayor to be a Jurat and he refuse to do that he shall pay unto the same (blank) pence. And the one Key of the money box shall remain with the Mayor and the other shall be delivered up to one of the best Jurats of the town. And in case the Mayor die before the said feast, the Jurats shall sound the horn, what time it be within the year, for their common assembly for to choose another Mayor, the which Mayor then so chosen shall do office until the said feast after the election, and in that case shall the Mayor so chosen be charged by one of the best Jurats, and so soon as the said feast is come, they shall go to their election in the same form aforesaid, and afterwards shall the box, seal and other muniments be borne to the house of the new Mayor.

Noble

Sir, there are some of Canterburie, who intend to waite vpon you, with a petition which they haue to preferre, touching the grieuances, which that great Cittie hath & doth susteyne vnder the tyranny of the Prelacie & Cathedrall there, which darketh the wholl Cittie: they moued me to write to you, which I haue done to satisfie them; not doubting (as I tould them) but you would take their cause in to hartly consideracion, without a preface.
 Sir, all that wish well to Sion heer, giue you many thanks for your zeale & labours for Christ, against AntiChrist. I am emboldened thus to trouble you, considering your ancient fauours towards me, and your kinde offer

35

40

(when I saw you in London last tearme) to sett your hand to my petition, I shall ere long clayme your promise; for ye present preferring the Common Cause; I haue had very vngracious dealeing, from the Lambeth Patriarch, by whom I haue bene depriued of my Ministry, & all the profits of my Liueing three yeares, & seauen monthes haueing my selfe my wife & 7 children to prouide for; such is the Prelates tyranny, for not consenting to morris daunceing vpon the Lords day./ Heer ar some priests, who have played their partes, in aduanceing the Romish proiect, whose parishioners ar silent; the honest men yat will wayt vpon you, can acquaint you with some particulars: Soe ceasing to trouble you, in your most weighty imployments, I craue pardon for my boldnes, & committing you to the protection of the Lord, I remayne Your obleiged freind, & seruant in the Lord, Richard Culmer

 MAidstone was formerly a very prophane Town, insomuch that I have seen Morrice Dancing, Cudgel playing, Stool-ball, Crickets, and many other sports openly and publickly on the Lords Day; I have heard them jeer, and deride, and mock at those who professed Godliness, and went to hear a Sermon on 40 the Lords Day abroad, when they had none at home. Commonly after the Evening Service, many of them went to the Ale-house, many to walk idly in the Fields. It was their constant custom to ply the conduits on the Lords Day, for the drawing of water. The former vain sinful customes of sports were reformed before his coming, but by his preaching he prevailed with them to forebear vain walking, idling at their doors, also to draw their water on Saturday night, which they should have occasion for on the Lords Day. Though the Town was large and full of people, yet you should hardly see one person in the street after the Sermons on the Lords Day, and I have known when the Mayor hath searched the Innes and Ale-houses he hath scarce found one of the Town there....

A A Suit by the King and his Bailiff against the Mayor and Jurats 10

ff 187-95* (16 December)

...

Memorandum that the Barons of the Kings Eschetter send a writt to the Sheriffe of kent Commaunding him by the same to Cause Edward Ryngley knight Bayliffe of the said Towne to appeare afore them there to make acomptes of his Baylywicke, as other Bayleiffes of ye said Towne hadd done in tymes past at which tyme the said Bayleiffe did not perfectlie knowe of every manner thing that he ought to Accompte for; And therefore he made Search in ye Recordes of the Exchequer for the Accomptes of othe Bayleiffes aforetymes, by the which he well perceived, and knewe that he was Charged to accompt for divers thinges which the said maiour and Iurates have taken wrongfully, and yet doe Receive to their owne vse and profit, That is to saie All the Eschetes and ffynes, fellons goodes and Catles, landes and lastage, All Shippes there amercementes, the keeping of the ffayre, and the Attachmentes of all manner of Persons within the said Towne, and the profittes of the Beakens in the Haven, wherefore the said Bayleiffe gave Coppies of the said Accomptes out of the said Exchequer, and brought them to ye said Maiour and Iurattes, and soe Shewed them howe they did the king wronge, praying them that they would abide the Order of Sir Baron Hayles and Sir Christopher Hayles in the Premisses for his discharge, or else he must Complaine vpon them to the Barons of the kinges Eschetter att ye making of his Accomptes, or else he must bee falslie forsworne, which he would not be, neither for them, nor for no man; but they would not be soe Contented, yett because he was loth to trouble any of them, he desired them to be Ordered by Sir Gulford their warden, and that they denied; yett after this, before he went to make his Accomptes, he spake to them againe, and desired them to lett two learned men to have the hereing of the same, and badd them to Choose what two they would in all England, And then the said maiour and Iurattes made him plaine

5/ the Mayer: *John Westcliff*20/ othe: *for other*24/ lastage: c corrected over g

Aunswere, that they had Received such thinges, and soe would they doe whether he would Complaine or noe. And vpon this att making of his Accomptes afore the Barons of the Eschetter he shewed what thinges that he hadd Received to the kings vse, and what thinges ye maiour and Iurattes did wrongefullie receive and withhould to their owne vse and profitt, wherevpon the said Barons of the Eschetter by the Councell of Sir Norwich, Mr Raddall, the kinges Serieantes and of Mr Lyster the kinges Attornie did send two Writtes of Subpena vnto Iohn Somer and Henry Booll late the Maiours of the said Towne, Commaunding them by the same, to come and make Aunswere afore them of the Premisses, but before ⁸that any Answere was made the said Iohn Somer hadd Broaken his Necke, and the said I Henrie Booll in his aunswere vtterlie denied the receiuing of any manner of thing aforesaid, Wherevpon all ye said Barrons of the Eschetter Commaunded the said Bayleiffe to Receive and keepe possession for the King[e] of all the said Premisses, And alsoe did bind the foresaid Henrie in Recognizance that hee should Suffer ye said Bayleiffe soe to doe, vntill such tyme as the matter were determined betwixt ye King and the aforesaid Maiour and Iurattes of ye said Towne, yett notwithstanding the said Bayleiffe hath hetherto ben letted to exercise his said office (and put vnto greivous trouble, [and] greate losse and hinderance to his vtter vndoeing) by ye said Henry, and other of his affinitye, as by Certaine Articles ffollowing plainelie doth appeare.

By these Articles ffollowing it doth playnelie appeare that Henry Booll, Vincent Gingham and Roger Manhod were the principall advisers and Cheife beginners of ye greate Ryatt and I Rebellion in Sandwyche the xvijth daie of december Anno xvij^o ffirst ye said Henrie Rooll being maiour of ye said Towne the last yeere past next before the great Ryott, was ever vsed to have xvj^{en} or twentie light and wyld persons, which he Called his Beagles, and many nightes he vsed to goe Round aboute the said Towne and his Beagles following him, and he and all they having noe Clothes vponn them but their doublettes and Hosses, and every of them having two or three Billetts in their handes hurling att dogges in the Streete, and knocking downe Signes at mens doores running into their howses, swearing and Staring with maney great O⁸a¹thes to kill and slaye, whoeso durst saye against them, and when they lacked ffyer, they would laye vponn the ffyer 3: or 4: ffgottes at once, and Cast twoe or three peniworth of Butter among them, for their pleasure, and whosoever durst saye, that they did [a] amisse, should to prison, or els be put in Ioperdie to loose his liffe./

Item ye said Vyncent was never Regarded with the said Henrie, vntill such time as he became servant vnto the said Henrie and Called him Master about the Towne with a hoppe sacke vponn his backe, following his Saide Master with a greate Companie of vnlawfull assemblies together with him, and incontynent after this, hee was made, Ellect, and Chosen one of the mayours Bretheren Iurate and Alderman of the same Towne./

Item the saide Henrie vincent diuerse tymes sithence the Suite begane have said aswell in Westminster Hall as at home in Sandwich, that they were sure that there would bee mischeiffe and mor

And the said Henrie said plainly that he Cared not for his parte, which way the lawe did passe, whether it were with him, or against him, for he was sure the Bayleiffe should never be able to gather any thing of him, nor of his, for he could make all the Towne to Ryse att his l whistle, and he wist well that ye king would not Cast all the Towne awaye, for kylling of one man or two /

Item the said Henry vincent and Roger, vponn Saint Clements daie last past afore ye said Ryott, (when all the Barons of the kinges Exchequer had Commaunded ye said Sir Edward Ryngelie Bayleiffe of the same Towne to gather the kinges Tollage in the ffayer, in ye said Towne according to the olde Custome) they by their meanes [and] procurement, and Commaundment Caused one Iohn Redd and diuers others to the number of xx^{tie} Persons, assembled together with swordes Bucklers, daggers, Staves and Clubbes to walke vpp and downe the ffayer all that daie Craking and swering to kill and Slay whosoever durst presume to gather any Penny that daie for the king, and that same night ye said Ryottes daunced aboute the Towne in a morrice daunce with swordes and Bucklers, and the said Henrie went to the Taverne and gave them wyne./

Item the next daie after, in the morning, when the Serieantes of the l said Bayleiffe came vnto the said maiour and his Bretheren openlie in ye Courte Hall there to Complaine vpon these [dem] misdemeaned Persons, the said Henrie then being maiour and vincent did revile him that did Complaine and Called him false knave, and would have hadd him to Prison, saying to him, that hee Complained too late, and his Complaint should nothing avayle him,

12/ Henrie vincent: for Henry and vincent

31/ Ryottes: for Ryottess

And then the Bayleiffes Seriant said to them: Masters if yee will see noe redresse in this matter, I will complaine further, and then they did defie him and badd him goe his wayes and doe his worst/

Item within 3. or 4: daies after this was past, the aforesaid henry vincent and Roger with others of their affinitie sent Iohn Eglyden their Towne Clerke to london to hearken what Tydings and what Complaint the Bayleiffe would make thereof vnto the kinges Councell, and when he came home againe he brought word vnto the foresaid Henrie Vincent and Roger of the Privy Seales, five daies before they were sent downe, and vpon that the aforesaid Henrie vincent and Roger I with others of their affinitie devised and determined amongst themselves in what manner and wise the foresaid Privy Seales should be Received when they did Come thether./

Item in what manner ye Pryvie Seales were Received my Lord Cardinall and other[s] of the kinges Councell have something hard tell, But surelie the Principall Cause that ye said Privy Seales should have ben delivered was almost by the meanes and Councell of of the aforesaid Roger, for he said dyvers tymes openlie in the Streete, that he never knewe any man that brought any writts or Commaundmentes into that Towne, but that he was Compelled to eat them, and after that throwne into the Haven and bydd drink salt watter to ytt./

Item the said Henry vincent and Roger by their Common Serieant Commaunded all the Commons of the Towne to Ryse and soe made a greate Ryott, and Caused the Towne gates to be Shutt, and the Church dores to be Locked, soe that the Bayleiffes Serieantes, could neither save their Lyves by Runing a waye nor by takinge of Sanctuarie/

Item the same daie that this greate I Ryott was, it fortunated that the said Henrie to come downe the Streete, and one shewed him one of the kinges Privy Seales, which he Spightfully hurled downe in the myre into the midst of the Channell of the Streate vnder feete, openlie before the People:/

Item about ix^o of the Clocke in the night following[.] this said Ryott, The said Henrie and vincent did gather to gether xvij or xx^{ti}c of the Cheiffe Ryotters (blank) to seeke the said Bayleiffe and his Serieantes to have murdered them, and then they went to Iohn Hubertes howse, and there Called for wine, and the said Iohn Huberd said to them, Sirs if yee hadd stricken of my head to daie at noone, as you said you would have done, I could have given you noe wine now, By the Masse said Thomas Ieninges if mr Booll speake the word thou shalt loose thy head, even by and by: for even as mr Booll sayeth soe shall it be, for wee all have bin ruled by him, and soe will wee bee, and the said Henrie Vincent and Roger sate by and Comforted him in his saying and laught at him, and there gave them all wyne enough att the same tyme/ l

Item from thence the foresaid henry vincent withall others the said Ryotters went to three or fflower other Howsses all together, and dranck and made Lustie Cheere, and after that they went with ye said Henrie Home to his howse and there made merrie, where he made them all a ffree Banckquett on ye best wise that he Could devise and afterwardes with a tabber and Pipe playing before them (after ye manner of men of warr) from place to place all the same night where as they went./

Item after ye Banquett was done and past at ye said vincentes (blank) maney of ye foresaid Ryotters Coming downe ye Streete by the Howse of the said Bayleiffe, they Called and Cryed for Ladders to assault the said howse, and swore that the Bayleiffe was within, and soe brake his glasse windowes all in peeces to the damage of xxxij s. and iiij d./

Item after this was done and past, the said Henrie and vincent about midnight, by the Councill of the foresaid Roger, went about the Streetes l againe knocking and Calling divers men out of theire bedds, and soe made a newe assemble Ryott, In what intent [I knowe not] the said Bayleiffe knoweth not, and about twoe of the Clocke in the Morning they sent forth towardes Canterburie Iohn Redde, Thomas Mangod, Thomas lenyns, Robert ffederygie and william Barber with other moe to the number of Ten persons, every of them with Bowe and Arrowes to lye in waytt at Canterbury Townes end to have Slaine the said Bayleiffe and his Serieantes as they Rodd to london./

Item ye said Henrie and vincent, the xxvijth daie of december next after this Ryott, assembled together 3 or iiij^{xx} persons about ix of the Clocke in the night, and made a generall procession round about the Towne with minstrelles and maney lightes before them, shouting and singing on this wise, every man that can say his Pater noster, his Aue, and his Creed pray to God for Ryngeley that ill he may speed, and then all the Companie that came after them sange, Amen, as lowde as they could Crye./

Item dyvers nightes after this, the l said Henrie and vincent did assemble together Certaine light persons to the number of xij or xiiij at a tyme goinge aboute the Streates from one howse to another Seeking and Serching for ye said Bayleiffe and his Serieantes to have hurt and beaten them,

5/ henry vincent: for henry and vincent 11/ as: corrected over another word, now illegible

24/ Thomas Mangod: for Thomas Manhod; common councillor from St Mary's parish Item ye said Roger manhod vponn whitson even last past with xvj persons or above with him/ made assault vponn William kemery Serieant to ye said Bayleiffe, and by like would have Slaine him, if that Thomas wyngfeild Comptroller of ye Towne had not saved him, for ye said Roger Cryed and Called soe lowde for more Companie, that ye men that were shooting at the Buttes at the Townes end, made so much hast to come to him, that some of them might not tarry to take their Arrowes but left them sticking in the Butt behind them./

Item vponn whitsun Even last past ye said Roger picked a quarrell and assaulted on[e] William kemery Serieant to ye said Bayleiffe, and Called an ayde of more Companie so that he assembled together the number of 14 or 15 persons in notorius manner, and then and there cald the same William false theife, and strucke & put I him in greate feare of his liffe

Item at ye Court of shipway in Iulij last past, when that one Iohn Read and Thomas Ienyns were put to execution, The said Bayleiffe according to the Commaundement of all the Barons of the kinges Exchequer, sent his deputie to Sandwich there to cease the goodes of ye said Iohn and Thomas to ye kinges vse and soe he did, and incontinent after that, the foresaid Vincent Ingraham Came thether with xij or xijj whoe Riotuouslie manessing and Swearing that the bayleiffe nor no man for him should meddle with nothing there neither for ye kinges vse, nor for the Queenes vse, But said plainly, that he would lett it, and soe bad tell him/

Item the said Vincent Engham that same night following and divers other nightes after that, did raise and assemble together Certaine of his affinitie, which he nowe Calleth his whelpes and watched and saught the said Bayliffe his Serieantes, In what intent I knowe not, the said Baylie Cannot perfectly tell./

Item divers and honest men of the same towne would have Complained vpon the foresaid Henrie Booll, Vincent Engr^aham and Roger I Manhod both at the Court of Shepway and afore ye kinges Councell here-in likewise, but they were stopped by straight Commandmentes and greate Threatninges, or else by Inprisonment and setting in the Stockes, soe that nowe every man in the Towne is afraid to tell the truth of their misdemeanour in the Premisses/

Item the said Henrie, Vincent and Roger Caused one Iohn Parysch of Item divers tymes and after that, ye said Iohn Road, Thomas Ienyns, [and] Iohn Parrish, Robert ffedregay and Iohn wyld with divers others had Comitted and done the Burglay (blank) The said vincent Henry, and Roger knowing them to have done the same, did Confesse themselves to be partakers and doers of them and kept Companie with them, I and Retayned them in the deed, and gave them money for their labour, bidding them feare nothing, for it was there deed as well as theirs/

Item the said Henry Vincent and Roger with other of their affinitie the xiiiijth daie of Iune last past, when that the Bayleiffes Officer by the Commaundement of the Barons of the kinges Exchequer had entred and taken possession for ye king in a Certaine Howse, and a Tenement within ye foresaid Towne that was fallen to the kinges Eschete, Incontinent they gave Commandment vnto William Cripps, Robert Brooke, Iohn Bonam, Iohn mammyng Richard Cripps and Iohn Pomfrett riotuouslie did disenter him againe by force, making their Boastes that they hadd disentred the king, and the said Henrie amazed & threatened ye said Officer swearing that he should surelie die for that same one daie/

Item furthermore besides all this, the foresaid Henrie, Vincent & Roger made dyvers assaultes and ffrayes as well vponn ye serieant of ye said Bayleiffe manusing and threatening both him and them with soe many great and greivous Oathes, insoemuch that ye said Bayleiffe could not come I vnto his owne howse, nor within ye said Towne exercise his said Office of Bayliwicke by the space of twoe yeeres, unlesse he and his serieantes should have bine in hazard of their lives, by Reason whereof he hath lost [ho] his howse his stuffe, and in his said Office and in Costes and suite at ye lawe to seeke for Remedie to ye some of CC markes and above, and all by the Craftie meanes councill and procurment of ye foresaid henrie, Vincent and Roger and other of their affinitie, Inhabitates of the same Towne, as shall appear by a Certaine bill of Processe ready to be shewed./

of her highnes Coming to this towne of Sandwich

Memorandum that the last daye of August beinge Mondaye her Maiestie Came to this sayd towne about vij of the Clock in the Eveninge at which tyme Iohn Gylbart Maior accompanied with ix Iurates the Townclarke and some of the Comen Counsell received her highnes at [Sandwich] Sandowne at the vttermost ende thereof the said Maior beinge apparreled in a scarlet gowne at 25 which place her Maiestie stayed And there the said Maior yelded I vp to her Maiestie his mace And not far from them stode thre hundreth persons or therabowtes apparrelled in whyte dobletes with blacke and whyt rybon in the 30 sleues black gascoyne hose and whyte [gard] garters, euery of them having a murryon and a calyver or demi Musket having thre dromes and thre Ensignes and thre Capitans viz Mr Alexander Cobbe Mr Edward Peake and Mr Edward Wood Iurates euery of theis dischardged there shott her Maiestie beinge at 35 downes gate. And duringe her Maiesties standinge and Receavinge of the mace the great Ordynance was dischardged which was to the number of one hundreth or Cxx and that in such good order as the Quene and noble men gaue great comendacion thereof and sayd that Sandwich should haue the honor aswell for the good order thereof as also of their small shott. 40 Then her Maiestie went towardes the towne and at Sandowne gate were a Lyon and a dragon all gilt set vp vppon ij postes at the bridge ende and her armes was hanged vp vpon the gate. All the Towne was graveled and strewed with Russhes herbes flages & suche Lyke euery howse havinge a number of grene [bowwes] ¹bowes standing against the dores and [howse] walles [of] every howse paynted whyte and black. Her Maiestie rode into the towne and in dyvers places as far as her lodginge were dyvers Cordes made of [yve] vine branches with their Leaves hanking crosse the streates and vpon them dyvers garlandes of fyne flowers And so she rode forth till she came directly over against mistres Cripps howses almost as far as the pellicane where stood a fyne howse newly buylt and vaulted over wheron her armes was sett and hanked with tapestrye: [In] In the same stode Rychard Spycer minister of St Clementes parishe a master of Art the Townes orator apparelled in a black gowne and a hooode both Lyned and faced with black Taffatye beinge the guyfte of the Towne accompanied with the other ij ministers and the scole master he made vnto her highnes an oration which followith. which she so well Lyked as she gaue thereof a singuler comendacion sayenge yt was both very well handeled and very Elloquent Then he presented her with a Cupp of gold of a C li. ¹ which Thomas Gylbart sonne to the Maior aforesaid received from ¹Mr Spycer and he gave yt to the footemen of whome her Maiestie received yt and so delyuered yt to Mr Rauffe Lane one of the gentlemen ¹Equirries [esquiers] who carried yt. And then the said Mr Spycer presented her with a new testament in greeke which she thankefully accepted And so rode vntill she came vnto Mistres Manwoodes howse wherin she Lodged. a howse wherin Kinge Henry the viijth had ben Lodged twyes before. And here is to be noted that vpon euery post and corner from her first entrye to her Lodginge wer fixed certen Verses and against the Court gate all thoes verses put into a Table and there [and] hanged vpp The next daye beinge a Twysdaye and the first of September the Towne havinge buylded a forte at Stoner on thother syde of the Havon. the Capitaines aforesaid Led over their men to assault the said forte during which tyme certen Walloundes that Could well swym had prepared Two boates and in thende of eche boate a borde Vpon which bordes stode a man and so met together with either of them a staffe and a shield of woodd and one of them did over throwe an other At which the Quene had good sport. And that don the Capitans put their men into a battayle. And [takeng] takeng with them some Lose shott gave the scarmeche to the forte and in the ende after the dischargd of ij fawkenetes and certen Chambers after dyvers assaults the fforte was wonne/The next daye viz. the wednesdaye the second of September Mistres Mayres and ¹her Sisters the Iurates wyves made the Quenes Maiestie a banket of Clx disshes on a table of xxvij foote long in the scole howse and so her maiestie came thether thorough Mistres Manwoodes garden and thorough Mr wooddes also: the ways beinge hanked with black and whyte bayes and in the scole howse garden Mr Isebrand made vnto her an oration and presented to her highnes a Cupp of silver and guylt with a cover to the same well nere a Cubit highē. to whome her Maiestie answered this. Gaudeo me in hoc natum esse vt vobis et Ecclesie dei prosim and so entered into the scole howse. / | Wheare she was very merrye and did eate of dyvers disshes without any assaye and causederten to be reserved for her and carried to her Lodginge

The next daye beinge Thursdaye and the daye of [out] her departinge against 5 the scole howse vpon the new turfed wall and vpon a scaffold made vpon the wall of the scole howse yarde were dyvers Children Englishe and dutche to the number of Cth or vj score all spynning of fyne bay yarne a thing well Lyked both of her Maiestie and of the nobilletie and Ladies And without the gate stode all the soldiers with their small shott and vpon the wall at the buttes 10 stode certen great peces. but the chambers by meane of the wetnes of the morninge could not be dischardged The great peces were shott of. and the small shott dischardged thryes. And at her departinge Master Maior exhibited vnto her highnes a supplicacion for the Havon which she tooke and promised herself to Reade. / 15

My Lord Threasorer my Lord Admyrall my Lord Chamberleyn and my Lord of Leycester were made pryvie to the suyt for the Havon they Lyked well

Bill of Complaint in Elliot et al v. Whitfield PRO: STAC 8/132/6 mb 2* (8 February) 30

To the kinges most excellent maiestie

Humbly Complayning shewe vnto your Highnesse your maiesties Loyall faithfull & obedient subiectes Iohn Elliott of Tenterden in the County of kent gentleman & Elizabeth his wife & Iames Skeetes of Tenterden aforesayd 35 Clothier & Iudith his wife That wheras your sayd subiectes have allwayes bin of good fame & name & of good & honest Conuersacion of life & borne of good & honest parentage & have lived in good esteeme & reputacion amongst their neighbours free from all suspicion of incontinency or any other Criminall imputacion what so euer. Yet so it is may it please your most excellent maiestie 40 that one Harbert Whitfield of Tenterden aforesayd gentleman in or about the eighteenth day of November last past in this fift yeere of your maiesties raigne of England did maliciously frame & Compose or cause to be framed & Composed a most malicious false obscene & scurrulous libell in meeter traducing therin amongst many others your sayd subiectes John Elliott & Elizabeth his wife & the sayd James Skeetes & Iudith his wife by casting diuers aspersiones & imputacions vppon their fame & credit & scandalizing & defaming them in 5 most Contumelious ignominious & reproachefull manner intending & indeuouring therby not only to dispoyle them of their good name & reputacion & to bring them into hatred & detestacion with all their neighbours to make them to be a scorne & a laughing stock to their enemies & a great grieffe to their parentes & friendes but also to make debate strife & dissintion 10 betweene man & wife & to worke seacret distrust diffidence & ielousies betweene them thereby to disturbe their mutuall peace & quiet & to nourish perpetuall Iarres & Contentions amongst them during their liues And further your sayd subiectes say that the sayd Harbert Whitfield did in or about the sayd eighteenth day of November & diuers other times since divulge disperse cast 15 send & deliver abroad or cause to be divulged dispersed cast sent & delivered abroad to diuers persons not only within the sayd towne of Tenterden but also in diuers other places within the County of kent diuers & sundry written Coppies of the sayd malicious false obscene & scurrulous libell the originals of some of which written with the hand of the sayd Harbert Whitfield as your 20 sayd subiectes hope they shalbe able to prove they wilbe ready to shew foorth vnto your highnesse the tenor wherof is as followeth hereafter vnder written.

 Now for asmuch as the sayd libell is [in it selfe] so slanderous & defamatorye & the offence of libelling is in it selfe so heynous & exorbitant & least others may be animated & imboldened by the impunity of this libeller to perpetuat the 25 like offenses & for as much as likewise ye sayd libell was made since your highnesse last most gracious general pardon & remaineth now vnpardoned that therefore your most excellent maiestie would be pleased for the reliefe of your sayd subiectes against such intollerable wronges & iniuries & the reparation of their credites & reputacions to graunt vnto your sayd subiectes 30 your maiesties most gracious writ of subpena to be directed to the sayd Harbert whitfield commaunding him at a certayne day & vppon a certayne payne therin to be limited personally to bee & appeere before the lordes & others of your maiesties honorable Counsell in your Highnesse Court of Starr chamber then & there to answer to the premisses & to stand too & 35 abide such further order therin as to them shalbe thought to stand with equity and iustice And your sayd subiectes according to their bounden dutye shall euer pray for the long prosperous peaceable & happy gouernement of your maiestie over vs

& scarce with his parrentage content brought vp about Bidborow that famous toune in kent where sparrowes dye for hunger and not with age spent which hath made his person so pittyfull leane that all his witte is not worth a beane then forth he goes in his tender age and became a player on a stage where he learnd to fiddle sing & to dance & like a proud peacock himselfe to advance scorning his betters despising some others but cleaving closely to redbearde his brother then fell he in loue with a propsy young mayd a good yeoman gentlewoman as it is sayd Goody Mistris Skeetes and was not a frayd He woed her he culd her & spake her full fayer

® The procession at Motindene.

For some lately alie in this shyre, haue beene eye witnesses, and did right well remember, that yeerely (vpon Trinitie Sunday) the religious persons of this house did vse to muster themselues in a most solemne marche, and pompous procession: wherein, albeit there wanted neither Coape nor Canapie, crosse nor candlesticke, flagge nor banner, light nor incense, piping nor chaunting, neither yet l any other delightfull glittering that might with the glorie thereof amaze the seely beholder, and rauish him (as it were) into a certeine Papishe heauen: yet to the ende that this Pageant of theirs might be the more plausible (in that it had some thing peculiar to it self) their fashion was, to make the Diuell himselfe to beare a part in this play with them.

Holy water chaseth the Divell.

For as they passed along in this array, the maner was, that some one (berayed like a Diuell) should offer to inuade the company, as though hee would take the holy Crosse by force from them: Then on the other side, outstepped some other bolde man (appointed for the nonce) with a holy water sprinckle in his hande, and hee with all his might flang holy water at him: heerewith, this counterfait Divill must fearfully start backward, for doubt of scalding, &, notwithstanding that he would many times after fare in shew as though he would haue flowne in their faces, yet might hee neuer be so bolde in deede as to approach or come within the fall of any one drop of this water: For, you remember by the olde Prouerbe, how well the Diuell loueth holy water. 5

And thus (forsoothe) the vertue of holy water (in putting the Diuell to flight) was confirmed at Motindene by a demonstratiue argument. Which if it be so, then greatly was Saint Paule deceaued in the 6. of his epistle to the Ephesians, where he goeth about to arme vs from toppe to toe against the assaultes of the Diuell: For what needed he l good man to recite Sallet, Shield, Sword, and so many other partes of defensiue and inuasiue furniture, when the Holywatersticke alone would haue serued the turne? Or, at the least, what ment hee to omitte that, being a thing so seruiceable, and easily prouided? But wee must giue these good fellows leaue (after their woonted manner) to set the Holy Ghoste to schoole: And yet, by the way, I let them weete, that they cannot, Leonem larua 15 terrere, make a Lion afearde with a visor: It is not their aqua lustralis, their holy water (which they haue fetched from Apolloes pot, and nor from the fountaine of Gods woord) that can make this ramping Lion to turne his backe in earnest. 20 Nay rather, let them beware of this his stratageme, and let them consider, that euen in worldly warrefare men bee neuer in more daunger of the enimie, than when hee feigneth to flie before them.
